

CATS AND DOGS in the Classroom

THE ART OF RELATIONSHIPS

Presented by: Michael Grinder

LAST YEAR, MICHAEL'S EVENT WAS SOLD-OUT

So be sure and register now so not to miss "Cats and Dogs in the Classroom." Michael Grinder is known for his groundbreaking work in group dynamics. This time, Michael has designed a class specifically for you – to help you increase your own charisma in the classroom.

By identifying specific attributes that create charisma, Michael offers new and exciting non-verbal techniques from his latest book Charisma-The Art of Relationships. An Analogy of Cats & Dogs, as a blueprint for developing charisma.

Course Objectives:

This course will give you concrete ways to use non-verbal techniques and group dynamics to benefit your classroom. Learn to:

- Understand and accept yourself and others
- Separate your and others' intentions from actions
- Interpret your and others' behaviors more accurately
- Provide new ideas on resolving conflict including knowing which conflicts not to try to solve
- Improve your leadership style and manage difficult personalities

You will also learn specific strategies for:

- managing disruptive students
- recognizing and utilizing classroom leaders
- coping with surprises and changes
- accelerating the formation of the class

Date: April 19, 2008

Time: Registration 8:00 AM, Class 8:30 – 3:30, One hour for lunch. (Lunch is on your own.)

Location: West Salem High School Commons Area, 1776 Titan Dr. NW, Salem, Oregon

Course Fee: $60.00 includes Course Materials ($50.00 for early-bird registration by April 7, 2008)

Send a check made out to Rachel Babbs Consulting,
6616 Parkshadow Ct. NE, Keizer, OR, 97303

Credit: One semester graduate credit is available through Chapman University for $70.00
Registration for credit on-site. (Credit pending)

About the presenter:

Michael Grinder holds a Masters degree from Loyola University. After 17 years of teaching experience on three levels of education, he has spent the last ten years as an international educational consultant specializing in the needs of the "At Risk" student population.

Send Registration & Payment to: Rachel Babbs Consulting 6616 Parkshadow Ct. NE, Keizer, OR 97303

Name _____	Home Phone _____
Address _____	School Phone _____
City/State/Zip _____	School _____
E-Mail _____	Grade Level/Subject _____

Enclosed is $50 for early bird registration (Before April 7) Enclosed is $60 for course registration (After April 7)

Registration for Credit will be on site. Cost of 1 graduate credit through Chapman University is $70.